Planning Works is a full-service planning firm that traces its roots to the former Freilich, Leitner & Carlisle Planning Group. Planning Works has developed award-winning plans, development regulations, design guidelines, capital improvement programs and a variety of other tools to guide local decision-makers. We're a team of accomplished professionals experienced in planning, land use law, fiscal analysis and community design. Our approach reflects a practical, realistic approach. We bring not only our experience, but our enthusiasm and our commitment. The Planning Works Team remains at the forefront of planning theory and application.
